Communicated.

We hope that while the political flurry is on in the state of Missouri in the district conventions to select delegates to the national Republican convention in 1908, that every federal officer will get his'n, and in case he is even at third-term he can still hold on to the government seat by having a son in readiness to take the succession and keep things in the family for all the post-offices, whether presidential or fourth-class, to the end of time.

In the light of the happenings at the district convention in the First district of Missouri to select delegates to the national convention, we see that convention was overslaughed, brow-beaten and coerced into giving way to a minority by a host of federal office-holders from St. Louis and adjacent territory. We Republicans who are such from principle and not for pelf want a different deal in our district and we are not going to have it from the bottom of the pack either. We will see that we get an honest deal everywhere and every time a deal is made.

The writer of this protest is a Republican, who has never feared any man on earth, but does fear God so much that he carries a shotgun on Sunday. Not seeking an office, I believe we will have what we need anyhow.
